

2016 National Farmers Market Week runs August 7-13

Facebook

This #FarmersMarketWeek, learn how a converted former prison bus became a mobile farmers market for communities in DeKalb County, GA. <http://bit.ly/2ancaO4>

This #FarmersMarketWeek, learn how farmers markets help make healthy living easier in neighborhoods throughout Boston. <http://bit.ly/29ODXag>

In honor of #FarmersMarketWeek, learn how fresh fruits and vegetables create increased sales for a corner store owner and easier access to produce for his neighborhood. Healthy profits and good health go hand in hand! <http://bit.ly/1oWEsP>

In honor of #FarmersMarketWeek, read about ways to increase the consumption of fruits and vegetables in your state and community! <http://bit.ly/29KdVDx>

Twitter

Learn how a former prison bus was converted into a mobile farmers market in DeKalb County, GA. <http://bit.ly/2ancaO4> #FarmersMarketWeek

Learn how farmers markets help make healthy living easier in neighborhoods of Boston. <http://bit.ly/29ODXaq> #FarmersMarketWeek

Watch how fresh fruits and vegetables lead to healthy profits and good health in one community! <http://bit.ly/1oWExsP> #FarmersMarketWeek

Read about ways to increase the consumption of fruits and vegetables in your state and community! <http://bit.ly/29KdVDx> #FarmersMarketWeek

Handles to Follow or Retweet

@FMCorg – Farmers Market Coalition. Official sponsor of Farmers Market Week.

You can access the Farmers Market Coalition’s National Farmers Market Week media kit that contains links to resources, a campaign timeline, and suggestions on how to use resources: <http://bit.ly/2a36ECz>

For more information, contact your DCH Communication Technical Assistance Liaison or send an email to the DCH Communication Team at dchcommunicationteam@cdc.gov.